(Job Description)

Cross Roads Christian Community Trust has operated in counselling since 1993. Its FreedomLife - Te Nikau programme is a Christian-focused residential centre for people with life-controlling problems, mostly addictions and compulsive behaviours, and has operated since 1999.

We require a couple, (with or without children) who desire/feel called to this kind of work. Positions are on a one paid, one voluntary basis for this live-on position.

One person to do maintenance on property & buildings, look after vehicles, etc. as well as supervising daily work times and be able to be involved in ministry areas such as leading devotions, bible study, prayer, etc. Trade or good DIY needed.

The other able to supervise, help with administration, and be involved in other practical, support, and similar spiritual ministry, (depending on skills, or counselling if qualified). Role is up to full-time, depending on family needs.

Must be people oriented, and able to share their active faith as part of their work, with a sense of mission.

Remuneration package is made up of one salary, power, and accommodation.

Applicants must have NZ citizenship, residency, or permanent work visa.
